

The Economic Association:

“EPSILON 15-16” – An Intercollegiate Research Paper Presentation competition

The Economics Association raised the bar for competition, quality and execution with its signature event, “Epsilon 15-16” which was held on 12th December 2015. The event saw participation from leading colleges across India, and the top 9 teams made it to the finals. It was an intellectually stimulating event where participants presented their views on topics such as E-commerce, Currency wars, Behavioral Economics, etc through very well written research papers. The event was graced by highly reputed judges- Dr. Nitin Kumar, Special Advisor, Reserve Bank of India and Professor Indradeep Ghosh, a Ph.D in Economics from MIT and professor at the Meghnad Desai Academy of Economics. Dhaval Koradia and Niket Thakkar (RA Podar College) walked away with the first prize, and Vinayak Bhatt (NM College) and Akshay Shetty and Fatema Kapasi (HR College) secured the second and third positions respectively.
