SELF DEFENCE SEMINAR

National Service Scheme has given us a platform with opportunities abundant to social service, making us socially sensitive and responsive to the needs and welfare of others benefitting from our actions and talents. We showcase and perform a pool of activities and programmes for the upliftment and amelioration of various sections of the society to create a niche of responsible citizen of this highly diverse nation. Last year, NMNSS ventured into a new territory and published its first magazine- Melange conveying the thoughts of NSSiets through words. Also this year, NMNSS got a face in the form of adorable DWIL who carries the NM NSS message "Thoda sa Dil Thodi si Will".

We commenced the activities of NSS with the extensive enrollment procedure in the month of June 2012 creating member strength of 100 volunteers for the academic year 2012-13.

- From 17th July 2012 to 1st August 2012 NM NSS organised the Rakhi Selling event in association with Valabhdas Dagara Indian Society for M.R. (VDI), National Association for the Blind, India (NAB), Sanisa (Tribal Women). Articles to be sold included attractive rakhis, key chains, earrings, flower sticks, chocolates, anklets and friendship bands. A total of 3,122 rakhis and 1,915 other articles were sold collecting an impressive and encouraging amount of Rs 63,608. We were also felicitated with the award for highest sales amongst colleges.
- The second event which was consequential after the rakhi selling event and prior to the festival of Rakshabandhan was the Rakshabandhan Celebration at the Juhu Police station on 1st August. To inculcate the feeling of brotherhood and oneness we decided on sending 5 to 6 girls from the NM NSS unit to tie rakhis to the policemen at Juhu Police Station. The Indian culture at its apogee witnessed girls tying colorful rakhis with complete traditions and customs
- The third event was the orientation for the new volunteers that took place on 3rd August. The orientation event was graced by our Principal Prof. Sunil Mantri, Vice Principals and Program Officers. All volunteers were introduced to the committee and were briefed on what NM NSS stands for, the work we execute and the planning and dedication that goes behind the results
- On 6th August i.e. Hiroshima Day, the NSS volunteers participated in a Peace Rally from Azad Maidan to Hutatma Chowk
- Over a period of two days i.e. 12th and 13th August, NM NSS sold 1500 national flags from the Hi-Tech Family Enrichment Foundation, individually handcrafted by differently abled children and collected Rs. 3750 for them
- On 15th August, 2012, we bifurcated our volunteers and committee into two distinct groups, one going to the University Independence day function at Kalina, Santacruz (east) while the other staying back at college for hoisting the Tricolor
- The BLOOD DONATION DRIVE in association with Lions Club and Think Foundation was on 7th and 8th of September, was one of the major and the most crucial event of NM NSS. JJ Mahanagar was the blood bank which helped us and cooperated in collecting 528 bottles of blood, saving up to 1,584 lives. Along with it, we also managed to get 99 Platelet, 258 Organ, 217 Eye donation registrations. We also organised free thalassemia check up for everyone

- Carter Road is a place where normally people go to have a leisure time. But we at NMNSS believe in leisure with development. Every morning there are students from the nearby slum locality who come to study at this place. NMNSS volunteers have been regularly visiting and teaching these kids from 7am to 10 am
