

September

A tradition followed by the French association of NM College of visiting the underprivileged citizens of our society and contribute our bit to humanity. The SYJC students had visited "The Swagat Ashram Charitable Trust" in Kandivali where they had an interactive session and they played games, danced and rejoiced with the kids and rejuvenated them from their daily schedule. A moderate donation made by the association. The children there were taught some French words