For NM it has always been a priority to encourage students to display their talent and participate in various contests. Continuing this, the cultural society in the year 2015-16 organised a number of events

RAND DE BASANTI

The first event Rand De Basanti – A musical journey on Independence theme was held on 13th August 2015. The event was a musical quiz based on the theme of independence where students participated in groups of 3 or 4. Prof Rekha Katheeth prepared and sang a group song with students ' Hind Des Ke Niwasi ' was the lime light of the event .

BOMBAY TIMES CLEAN & CLEAR FRESH FACE

The next event took place on 21st November 2015. The Cultural society hosted 'The Bombay Times Clean & Clear Fresh Face Contest'. Here, the students showcased their talent and further answered the questions posed by the judges, one of whom was celebrity Armaan Kohli. The winner and runners up were featured in the following day's 'Bombay Times' newspaper. Two of the participants Shubam Jain and Abhishek Vora were declared as finalist of the Mumbai City for the fresh face.

MR. & MISS N.M.

The last event 'Mr & Miss N.M.' took place on Traditional Day i.e. 18th December, 2015. This event was held for the students, teaching staff as well as the non-teaching staff. All the three sections thoroughly enjoyed this fun filled event where they performed their various talents and gave interesting answers to questions asked. The Professors participation was also a remarkable achievement of the society, Prof. Deepa Chitnis won the trophy for the teacher segment.

All the events received great responses and enthusiasm from the students and teachers thus making it a memorable year for the association and the college.
