

The Economics Association

Event 1: “Empresario”

11th August, 2016

Room no: 5

Empresario means ‘a businessman’. Thus, as the name suggests this event was a complete business package that judged marketing and business skills of the participants. There was an active participation from nearly 20 teams who excellently displayed their business skills. The winner with the most convincing solution to the business crises put forth was declared as the “Empresario Of the Day”.

