Movie Screening- 16th July, 2010-

The Economics Association this year, aimed at making the activities of the club more participative and interesting. A Charlie Chaplin movie was screened with the objective of connecting with the crowd and also learning economics through the interesting medium of movies. The Charlie Chaplin movie- Modern Times- was based on the American society set in the times of Great Economic Depression of 1930s. 75 students watched the movie which was followed by an interactive session of questions and answers based on the movie and its correlation to concepts in Economics.

A.D. Shroff Memorial Intercollegiate Elocution Competition: 3rd December 2010

The association hosted the preliminary round of the 46th A. D. Shroff Memorial Elocution Competition on 3rd December 2010 for the Forum of Free Enterprise. The competition aimed at bringing out the true economist in every student by offering them a platform to voice their opinion on pertinent economic issues. The competition also gave the students an opportunity to display their elocution talent and to participate in an intercollegiate event. Six students participated in the event which was judged by Prof. Satheesh Menon, Vice Principal of Walia College and Prof. Sonali Chatterjee, senior professor of Mithibai college. Ms. Swati

Kapadia, of the Forum of Free Enterprise was the observer at the event. Ms. Nidhi Bakshi from SYBCom won the first prize and four other participants received cash prizes and certificates.
