The Psychology Club of NM College, known for out of the box thinking as well as conducting self-enriching events continued with its tradition in the year 2011-12. We had "Rendezvous with Lakshmi Narayan Tripathi" in the month of August which turned out to be a super-success. Lakshmi, is a well-known third-gender personality as well as a crusader of the Hijra community who has represented India Globally. She has been seen on popular shows like Dus ka Dum, Sach ka Saamna and Bigg Boss. She spoke at length about how one can be successful, no matter what. The students connected with her on an intimate level when she spoke about the difficulties she faced to be accepted just the way she is. She implored the students to be true to themselves and be loyal to who they were and not what they wanted to be. The students were highly motivated.

We followed with "INK-TROSPECT" a graphology workshop conducted by 'Mr. Milind J. Rajore' founder and head of Institute of Graphology and personal success in the month of December. He shed light on the peculiarities of one's handwriting and a number of analysts conducted free personal analysis for the students attending the workshop. This was another success which was proved by the jam-packed classrooms. The students left with new knowledge about themselves, making the year a very emotionally satisfying year for us at the Club.
