1) The Commodity Market: Date: July 25 , 2012. This event included the trading of commodities in the wholesale and retail markets just like a mock commodity market. The prices of the commodities were shown to the participants. Various Government policies led to the fluctuation of the commodities. The participants had to use their discretion to buy, hold and sell the commodities.

2) Cent Percento: Date: September 7 , 2012. This event involved estimating percentages about facts posed in the form of question. It was based on the American show, 'Power of Ten'. In between the question round, there was an additional quiz round where the participants who were eliminated out of the game could answer questions and win prizes.
